Deecastle Beat 2017

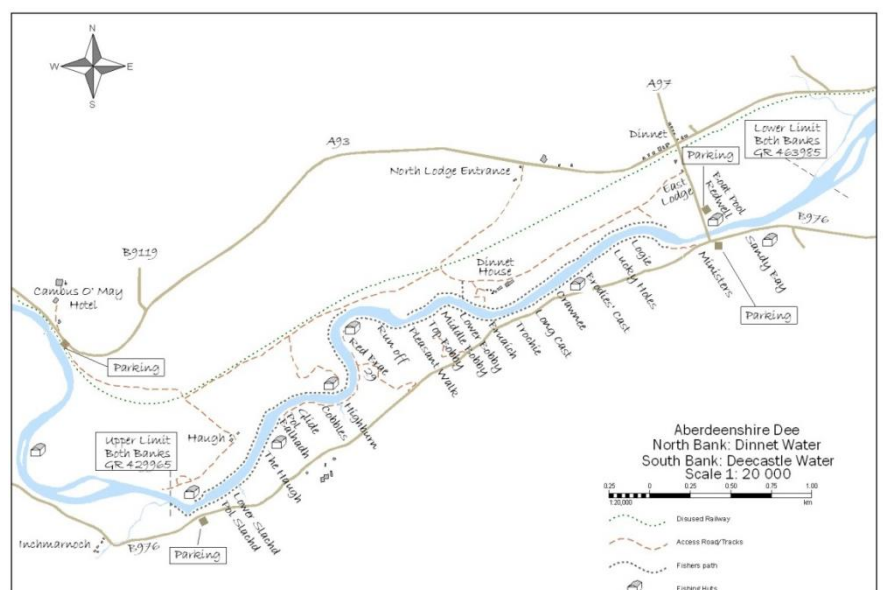

In Spring, both banks from the top of Pol Slachd downstream to the foot of the Boat Pool (shared with Dinnet Estate). In the Summer, south bank only.

The beat has 5.2 kilometres (3.2 miles) of fly-fishing, with 22 named pools on the south side of the Dee. There is a bank and ghillie sharing agreement with the Dinnet beat opposite that allows fishers to enjoy both banks of this fantastic stretch of river doubling the length of river available in the Spring season. The beat winds its way through wonderful farmland and woodland scenery. There are five huts and shelters on the beat with more on the Dinnet side. Fishing is available by the week part week or on a daily basis. The beat is managed jointly between Glen Tanar

The beat has three main fishing periods, early Spring, Spring and Summer. The early Spring period is for the month of March when four rods fish the beat then from 3 April to 1 July, six rods fish the beat. The beat sharing agreement is for the Spring period. In the Summer, from 3 July to 30 September, two rods fish the beat from the Deecastle (south) side. From the beginning of the season, until 1 July the beat has the services of a full-time ghillie, after which ghillying is by arrangement with the estate office.

Access to the beat is by car along tracks to most of the beat. There are also paths along the riverside on both banks that allow access to all parts of the beat on foot. Dinnet Bridge is the main crossing point between banks and is near the bottom of the beat. The beat has fly fishing only and a complete catch and release policy.
