Current COVID-19 Restrictions

Safety is our number one priority at Glen Tanar. Rest assured that we are taking all the necessary steps to provide a safe environment for you to enjoy your stay with us at Glen Tanar. See our Covid-19 Cleaning Statement .

Scottish National Visitors

In addition to all the measures we have put in place we must also make you aware of the Scottish Government's latest rules and restrictions in force at the time of your stay. The latest Scottish Government guidance, rules and restrictions can be found online here.

The Scottish Government has recently updated new temporary measures to stop the spread of Covid-19. These temporary measures include Local Authority Covid Level Allocations. All levels, and the restrictions that apply to them, will be in effect from Monday 2nd November at 6am. At all levels though households still cannot mix indoors. Travel to and from level 3 and 4 areas within Scotland is now for essential purposes only. An 'essential purpose' is classed as travel for work (where it cannot be done from home) / education and local outdoor exercise.

The current assessments by and of Scottish local authorities can be found online here. A description of each level together with local authority allocations can also be found online here.

Other Visitors

There are different restrictions for people who live and travel from out with Scotland. England, Wales and Northern Ireland all have different rules and restrictions on travel. When travelling to Scotland from any other country it is important that you respect the rules and restrictions in Scotland and do not travel to different parts of the UK where your intended activities would be prohibited by legislation.

If you are planning on travelling from England you can find out the latest coronavirus restrictions in your local area online here.

If you are unsure about any restrictions or have any questions about your planned trip to Glen Tanar, please get in touch with a member of our team who would be happy to help assist your enquiry.
